Dear Friends,

The Cricket world cup is one of the main focuses these days. We all have our favourite teams and we follow them very closely. Living in Western Sydney area we are quite involved and follow Rugby matches. They become the topic of our conversation at times. Following a sport or a team is a very good thing. It gives us a sense of belonging. It is our choice of following something. On the contrary, following Jesus is a vocation. It is a special calling. Following Jesus requires courage and faith. It is not easy. The world keeps distracting us with numerous things. Following Christ means, following His life and teaching. We are called to be another Christ.

Jesus was faced with many problems. He didn't have a free run. Often, people confronted Him and even rejected Him outright. In the Gospel of today, Jesus was not accepted as He set out on His journey towards Jerusalem. He was rejected not only by the Samaritans but also by His own people. Nothing deterred Jesus from doing what He needed to do.

Following Jesus is a way of life. He doesn't promise honour and glory when we follow Him. He was open in saying that the Son of Man doesn't have a place to lay His head. Other people who were invited by Jesus began to give excuses and some wanted more time to decide.

What do we look for when we follow Him? Are we prepared to give up some of the comforts that we have? Are we prepared to amend our way of life so that we can fit into His way of life?

God bless.

Kind Regards,

Fr. Suresh Kumar

THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH, from the Catechism of the Catholic Church

(Source: http://www.vatican.va/archive/ENG0015/_P3Y.HTM)

How do the Sacraments affect our daily lives?

SECTION TWO: THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH, Chapter One: The Sacraments of Christian Initiation: Article 3: THE SACRAMENT OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST

II. What is This Sacrament Called?

1329 The Lord's Supper, because of its connection with the supper which the Lord took with his disciples on the eve of his Passion and because it anticipates the wedding feast of the Lamb in the heavenly Jerusalem.¹⁴¹ The Breaking of Bread, because Jesus used this rite, part of a Jewish meal when as master of the table he blessed and distributed the bread,¹⁴² above all at the Last Supper.¹⁴³ It is by this action that his disciples will recognize him after his Resurrection,¹⁴⁴ and it is this expression that the first Christians will use to designate their Eucharistic assemblies;¹⁴⁵ by doing so they signified that all who eat the one broken bread, Christ, enter into communion with him and form but one body in him.¹⁴⁶ The Eucharistic assembly (synaxis), because the Eucharist is celebrated amid the assembly of the faithful, the visible expression of the Church.¹⁴⁷

1330 The memorial of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection.

The Holy Sacrifice, because it makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior and includes the Church's offering. The terms holy sacrifice of the Mass, "sacrifice of praise," spiritual sacrifice, pure and holy sacrifice are also used,¹⁴⁸ since it completes and surpasses all the sacrifices of the Old Covenant.

The Holy and Divine Liturgy, because the Church's whole liturgy finds its center and most intense expression in the celebration of this sacrament; in the same sense we also call its celebration the Sacred Mysteries. We speak of the Most Blessed Sacrament because it is the Sacrament of sacraments. the Eucharistic species reserved in the tabernacle are designated by this same name.

1331 Holy Communion, because by this sacrament we unite ourselves to Christ, who makes us sharers in his Body and Blood to form a single body.¹⁴⁹ We also call it: the holy things (ta hagia; sancta)¹⁵⁰ - the first meaning of the phrase "communion of saints" in the Apostles' Creed - the bread of angels, bread from heaven, medicine of immortality,¹⁵¹ viaticum....

1332 Holy Mass (Missa), because the liturgy in which the mystery of salvation is accomplished concludes with the sending forth (missio) of the faithful, so that they may fulfill God's will in their daily lives.
