This Sunday, the Church celebrates a feast to the Most Holy Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, three persons in one God. The Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, number 44, tells us that "The central mystery of Christian faith and life is the mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity."

There is a story about St Augustine, where one day, he was walking by the seashore, contemplating and trying to understand the mystery of the Holy Trinity when he saw a small boy running back and forth from the water to a spot on the seashore. The boy was using a sea shell to carry the water from the ocean and place it into a small hole in the sand. When St Augustine asked him what he was doing, the boy replied that he was trying to pour all the sea into that hole. St Augustine told him that, that was impossible to do, and the boy replied that it is no more impossible then what St Augustine was trying to do: to comprehend the immensity of the mystery of the Holy Trinity with human intelligence, which is limited.

We might not fully understand the Mystery of the Holy Trinity, but that's where Faith comes in. Jesus came to show us and tell us who the Father is and has given us the Holy Spirit. The Most Holy Trinity is very much part of our daily lives. We are baptised in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Whenever we make the sign of the Cross or pray the Creed...we are calling on the Holy Trinity. On this special feast, we thank God: The Father, our Creator, Jesus, our Saviour and the Holy Spirit, our Guide and Helper, for their plan of salvation.

All Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

God bless us all,

Annabelle Bhandoo
Pastoral Associate.

THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH, from the Catechism of the Catholic Church

(Source: http://www.vatican.va/archive/ccc_css/archive/catechism/p2s2c2a4.htm)

How do the Sacraments affect our daily lives?

SECTION TWO: THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH, Chapter Two: The Sacraments of Healing: The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation

IN BRIEF

1485 "On the evening of that day, the first day of the week," Jesus showed himself to his apostles. "He breathed on them and said to them: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained'" (Jn 20:19, 22-23).

1486 The forgiveness of sins committed after Baptism is conferred by a particular sacrament called the sacrament of conversion, confession, penance, or reconciliation.

1487 The sinner wounds God's honor and love, his own human dignity as a man called to be a son of God, and the spiritual well-being of the Church, of which each Christian ought to be a living stone.

1488 To the eyes of faith no evil is graver than sin and nothing has worse consequences for sinners themselves, for the Church, and for the whole world.

1489 To return to communion with God after having lost it through sin is a process born of the grace of God who is rich in mercy and solicitous for the salvation of men. One must ask for this precious gift for oneself and for others.

1490 The movement of return to God, called conversion and repentance, entails sorrow for and abhorrence of sins committed, and the firm purpose of sinning no more in the future. Conversion touches the past and the future and is nourished by hope in God's mercy.

1491 The sacrament of Penance is a whole consisting in three actions of the penitent and the priest's absolution. The penitent's acts are repentance, confession or disclosure of sins to the priest, and the intention to make reparation and do works of reparation.

1492 Repentance (also called contrition) must be inspired by motives that arise from faith. If repentance arises from love of charity for God, it is called "perfect" contrition; if it is founded on other motives, it is called "imperfect."

1493 One who desires to obtain reconciliation with God and with the Church, must confess to a priest all the unconfessed grave sins he remembers after having carefully examined his conscience. The confession of venial faults, without being necessary in itself, is nevertheless strongly recommended by the Church.

1494 The confessor proposes the performance of certain acts of "satisfaction" or "penance" to be performed by the penitent in order to repair the harm caused by sin and to re-establish habits befitting a disciple of Christ.

1495 Only priests who have received the faculty of absolving from the authority of the Church can forgive sins in the name of Christ.
